1.2 New & Substantially Modified Positions. If the Employer creates a new bargaining unit position or substantially changes the requirements, responsibilities and duties of an existing position, the Employer shall provide written notice to the Union, including the position description and a proposed rate of pay, at least fourteen (14) days prior to implementation of the new or substantially revised position. If the Union requests bargaining within 14 days’ receipt of the notice, the parties will meet to bargain the rate of pay. The Employer’s proposed rate shall be paid while negotiations proceed.

Article 2

Union stewards, representatives, and related provisions

2.1 Union Stewards. Union Stewards are bargaining unit employees. The Union shall provide the Employer a list of all Union Stewards and elected union representatives from the bargaining unit. The transaction of Union business shall be on the employees’ own time, except a Union Steward on duty shall be paid their regular rate of pay for attending investigatory interviews. When attending grievance meetings, a union steward will be paid their regular rate of pay, when requested by the employer. Off duty Union Stewards entering the hospital to transact Union business shall be subject to the same access provisions as Union Representatives.

2.2 Union Representatives’ Access to Premises. Non-employee Union Representatives (employees of the Union) shall be permitted access to public areas of the hospital for ascertaining whether this Agreement is being observed and to assist Stewards in the administration and enforcement of the Agreement. Should a Union Representative require access to non-public areas, he/she shall make arrangements in advance with the appropriate Employer Representative, and such access shall not be unreasonably denied.

2.3 New Employee Orientation. The Employer will provide advance notice to the Union of the schedule for new employee orientation, the schedule for the Union to present to the new employees for up to thirty (30) minutes during the orientation, and the location of the orientation. The Employer will provide a Union Steward or Representative the opportunity, on release time without pay, to meet with new bargaining unit members at the new employee orientation or during an alternate time during the orientation process. New employees will be paid for up to thirty (30) minutes for this part of orientation.

2.4 Bulletin Boards. The Employer will provide to the Union, bulletin board space of 24" X 36" for posting of Union related notices. Bulletin boards will be located in non-patient care areas, such as break rooms, that are accessible to bargaining unit employees or other mutually agreed upon locations.

2.5 Printing of Agreement. The Employer and the Union shall share equally the cost of printing sufficient copies of this agreement for distribution by the Union. The content of the cover of this agreement shall be determined by mutual agreement between the parties.

Article 3

Union membership

3.1 Union Membership. All employees shall, within thirty-one (31) days after hire or the signing of this Agreement, whichever occurs later, become and remain members in good standing of the Union as a condition of employment. Membership in good standing shall be defined as the obligation to pay periodic dues, or upon request from an employee who wishes to pay an agency fee in lieu of membership in the Union, to pay that portion thereof which represents the Union's costs of representing employees. Newly hired and transferring employees will be made aware of this provision at the time of orientation or during the transfer process. Employees who fail to comply with this requirement shall be discharged by the Employer within thirty (30) days after receipt of written notice to the Employer from the Union, unless the employee fulfills the membership obligations set forth in this Agreement.

Any employee exercising his or her right of religious objection must provide the Union with a receipt of payment to an appropriate charity on a monthly basis.

be honored in accordance with its terms. Deductions will be promptly transmitted to the Union by check payable to its order. The Employer will also provide a roster in electronic format that includes the employee's name and identification number, the amount deducted, and earnings for the pay period. Upon issuance and transmission of a check to the Union, the Employer's responsibility shall cease with respect to such deductions.

The union recognizes the Employer's right to operate and manage its business and facilities. Except where limited by a specific provision of this Agreement, all rights are subject to the Employer's exclusive control. These rights include but are not limited to the following: to determine the number of employees to be employed in each operation, shift, or department; to establish, change, modify, interpret or abolish the Employer's policies and procedures; to increase or diminish, change, improve or discontinue operations, programs and jobs, in whole or in part; to increase or diminish, change, improve or discontinue personnel, in whole or in part; to hire, promote, and transfer employees; to suspend, discharge, demote and discipline employees for just cause; to

ARTICLE 8 DISCIPLINE AND DISCHARGE

8.1 Discipline and Discharge:

8.1.7 The Employer will provide an affected employee with a copy of any written disciplinary notice. The employee shall sign the notice only to acknowledge receipt, and the employee's signature shall not constitute agreement with the disciplinary action or an admission of guilt.

8.2 Progressive Discipline. Written disciplinary notices will not be considered after two (2) years if there have been no further disciplinary occurrences during that two-year period, with the following exceptions: (1) violation of the Employer's non-discrimination policies, including sexual harassment; (2) conduct threatening or endangering patient safety; (3) coworker abuse issues or; (4) theft or falsifying records, or (5) unlawful breach of confidentiality or other privacy. 9.1.1 Days. For the purpose of this article "days" include Saturday, Sunday, and holidays.

9.1.2. Extension. Time limits set forth in the following steps may only be extended by mutual written consent of the parties, including confirmation via email.

9.2 Pre-grievance Resolution (Informal Procedure). Except in cases of documented discipline or a group grievance an employee will first attempt to resolve the problem with the employees' immediate supervisor or designee. When the employee brings the matter to the supervisor's or designees' attention, the employee may identify the matter as a potential grievance. When notified, the supervisor or designee will make a good faith effort, at the earliest available opportunity, to resolve the matter. If the resolution appears to extend at or beyond the timeline under 9.3.1 either party may request an extension. The employee may request the assistance of the Shop Steward or Union representative for this procedure.

9.3 Formal Procedure. In accordance with 9.2 an employee who wishes to pursue a grievance will do so under the following procedure.

9.3.1 Step 1. The employee or the union will submit the grievance signed by the Union representative and the employee, to the Employer's human resources department within thirty (30) days after the employee knew or should have known of the occurrence on which the grievance is based. The written grievance will describe the alleged breach of this Agreement, the date of the alleged breach, the specific provisions of this Agreement alleged to have been violated, and the specific remedy requested. The written grievance will be referred to the employee's department manager or designee. Within 14 days thereafter, the manager or designee and the employee and his or her Shop Steward or Union representative will meet in an attempt to resolve the grievance. The manager or designee will provide a written response to the grievance within 14 days after the Step 1 meeting.

9.3.2 Step 2. If the grievance is not resolved at Step 1, the Union may submit the grievance to the Employer's human resources department within 14 days following receipt of the Step 1 response. The grievance will be referred to the appropriate Director or designee. Within 14 days thereafter, the Director or designee and the employee and his or her Shop Steward or Union representative will meet in an attempt to resolve the grievance. The Director or designee will provide a written response to the grievance within 14 days after the Step 2 meeting.

The Union may initiate a grievance at Step 2 if the grievance involves either a group of employees, the entire bargaining unit or is related to a termination and the grievance is submitted within fourteen (14) calendar days from the date the employee(s) were or should have been aware a grievance existed.

9.3.3 Step 3. If the grievance is not resolved at Step 2, the Union may submit the grievance to the Employer's human resources department within 14 days following receipt of the Step 2 response. Within 14 days thereafter, the Chief Operations Officer (COO) or designee and the employee and his or her Shop Steward or Union representative will meet in an attempt to resolve the grievance. The COO or designee will provide a written response to the grievance within 14 days after the Step 3 meeting.

9.3.4 Step 4. If the grievance is not resolved at Step 3, the Union may no later than 14 days after receiving the Employer's Step 3 response, notify the Employer of the Union's intent to submit the matter to arbitration. By mutual agreement, the parties may request the services of a mediator by submitting the dispute to the Federal Mediation and Conciliation Service prior selecting an arbitrator. If the parties do not pursue mediation or the dispute is no resolved in mediation, the parties will within 14 days of the conclusion of mediation or notification to proceed to arbitration, seek to select a disinterested party to serve as an arbitrator. If the Employer and the Union are unable to agree upon an arbitrator, then the arbitrator will be selected by process of elimination from a panel of five arbitrators furnished by the Federal Mediation and Conciliation Service. The arbitrator will render a decision as promptly as possible after the date of case presentation. The decision of the arbitrator will be final and binding on the Employer, the Union, and the employee(s).

9.4 The Arbitrator. The arbitrator will have no authority to change, modify, subtract from or add to the provisions of this Agreement. Instead, the arbitrator will have authority only to apply and interpret the provisions of this Agreement in reaching a decision. The arbitrator's fee and expenses will be borne equally by the parties. All other expenses, including attorney's fees, will be borne by the party incurring those expenses.

9.5 Timelines. If the Employer fails to meet any of the time limits set forth above, the Union may move to the next step in the procedure as if the grievance had been denied at the expiration of the relevant time limit. If the employee or the Union fails to meet any of the time limits set forth above, the grievance will be deemed resolved and neither the employee nor the Union may further pursue the grievance.

ARTICLE 10 HOURS OF WORK

10.1 Work Period. Seven consecutive 24-hour periods of time beginning at 12:00 am Sunday morning and ending at 11:59 pm on Saturday night.

10.2 Overtime.

10.2.1 Weekly overtime. All time worked in excess of forty (40) hours during a designated seven (7) day period will be considered overtime

10.2.2 Daily overtime. All time worked in excess of the employee's scheduled shift, of least 8 hours, will be considered overtime.

10.2.3 Overtime rate. Overtime will be paid at the rate of one and one-half (1 ½) times the employee's regular rate of pay. Overtime will be computed by rounding to the nearest one-quarter hour. There will be no pyramiding or duplication of overtime pay. Non-worked hours are not included for purposes of determining overtime such as on-call hours, paid time off, jury duty, bereavement and any paid leaves of absence. All overtime must be properly authorized by the employer, except in exigent circumstances.

10.2.4 Mandatory overtime work. Mandatory overtime is prohibited except for when there is an unforeseeable emergent circumstance that would be detrimental to patient care.

10.2.5 Overtime and Holidays. Hours worked on Holidays will be counted toward computation of weekly overtime hours.

10.3 Overtime Distribution. All overtime within a unit will be distributed based upon a list of employees with bargaining unit seniority on a rotational basis per current unit processes. The most senior person on the bargaining unit seniority list who is qualified will be offered additional work hours first.

10.4 Meal Periods and Rest Breaks. The employer will provide meal and rest periods in accordance with state and federal laws except that the employer agrees to provide rest periods in 15-minute increments in accordance with the employers' policy. Rest breaks shall be considered time worked for pay purposes.

10.5 Work Schedules. Work schedules will be posted on at least a 4 (four) week basis and will be posted no later than 14 days prior to the effective date. Except in emergency circumstances, changes to the posted schedule will be by mutual agreement with the affected employee(s). Schedules will be posted by the existing department protocol. Requests for scheduled days off, or to retract scheduled days off, must be submitted in accordance with article 15, PTO. Employees will not be pre-scheduled beyond their FTE without their consent, except as outlined in 10.2.4.

10.5.1 Distribution of Additional Work. Prior to the posting of the schedule, when additional work becomes available the shift(s) will be distributed on a rotational basis to employees in the department who email their scheduler their availability, first at straight-time, then at time-and-a-half.

10.5.2 Extra Shifts. After the schedule is posted, when extra shift(s) become available they will be offered to employees according to the MOU for Voluntary Shifts.

10.6 Report Pay. With the exception of voluntary meetings, employees who report for work as scheduled shall be paid a minimum of two (2) hours' report pay at the straight time rate, unless the Employer makes a reasonable effort to notify the employee no less than two (2) hours prior to the beginning of the scheduled shift that he/she should not report. An employee may voluntarily agree to leave prior to expiration of the two (2) hour period in lieu of staying and being paid for the full two (2) hours.

10.7 Rest Between Shifts (Short Rest). Unless performing standby duty, each employee is entitled to an unbroken rest period of at least ten (10) hours between shifts based upon actual time worked. Any time worked without the required rest will be paid at the premium rate of time and one-half the regular rate of pay. For purposes of this paragraph, (1) working as a result of a trade or request by another employee to work a shift for which that employee was scheduled, (2) working a shift as a result of voluntary sign-up, not requested by the employer (3) attending a non-mandatory meeting, in-service or education day shall not be deemed an event that disrupts an otherwise unbroken rest period.

10.8 Consecutive Weekends. The Employer will make all reasonable efforts to schedule employees so that they have at least every other weekend off. In the event that an employee is required to work on two (2) consecutive weekends, all time worked on the second weekend will be paid for at the rate of 1½ times the employee's regular hourly rate of pay. The next regularly scheduled weekend will be paid at the employee's regular rate of pay. For purposes of this provision, the weekend is defined as commencing at 23:00 on Friday and concluding at 23:30 on Sunday. This paragraph shall not apply to Per Diem employees and if the employee voluntarily agrees to work on the weekend either at the time of hire or thereafter (including any trading of weekend work). A weekend is defined as Saturday and Sunday for the first and second shifts; and, for the third shift, Friday and Saturday or Saturday and Sunday, as designated by the Medical Center upon a caregiver's employment or subsequently upon a caregiver's change of unit, hours or position title.

10.9 On-call or standby/call back. Employees will be paid $3.75 per hour while on call. Employees placed on standby status during a recognized holiday will be compensated at $4.75 hour. Standby hours will not be counted as hours worked. An employee on standby status who is called in to work will be compensated for standby pay in accordance with current policy.

In the event of a call back there will be a minimum call back pay of three hours or the actual hours worked, whichever is greater.

Another minimum guarantee of three hours is not initiated if a caregiver is called back to work prior to the expiration of the previous three-hour minimum.

When an employee is called back less than three hours prior to his/her scheduled shift, the minimum call back will instead be for the period of time from when the employee reports to work until the beginning of the next scheduled shift, whether or not the Medical Center interrupts the call back during that period.

10.10 Holidays. All hours worked on the following recognized holidays will be paid at the rate of time and one-half times the regular rate of pay:

New Year's Day
Memorial Day
Independence Day
Labor Day
Thanksgiving Day
Christmas Eve
Christmas Day

Holiday pay shall apply for all hours worked from 11:00 p.m. on the day preceding the holiday until 10:59 p.m. on the actual holiday.

10.10.1 Employees will have the option to use PTO if their area runs reduced staffing levels or is closed on a recognized holiday and they would normally be scheduled that day.

10.11 Sixth and Consecutive Day. Scheduling of over six (6) consecutive days of work is discouraged and should be done only in emergent situations regardless of work week or to accommodate an employee's request. Premium pay of time and one half (1½) the employee's regular rate of pay will be paid on the sixth and consecutive day worked, and each subsequent consecutive day worked, following five (5) consecutive days already worked, unless waived by mutual agreement. Any day the caregiver worked four or more hours, will count toward sixth and consecutive day pay under this section. For purpose of this section, "day" is defined as the calendar day on which the caregiver's scheduled shift begins.

The Medical Center may cancel any day of work to break the consecutive day cycle. This section shall not apply to employee-initiated shift or schedule changes.

10.12 Low Census. Low census is defined as a reduction of hours for all or part of any employee's shift as necessitated by reduced medical center volumes or other occasions when staffing levels must be adjusted on a temporary basis. ### JOB POSTINGS AND FILLING OF VACANCIES

11.2 Filling of Vacancies. To be considered for a posted position an employee must apply in accordance with the employers' policy and procedure. Postings will include the job title department, requirements for the job, shift (day/evening/night/variable), shift length, FTE status, and date of posting. Bargaining unit candidates will be considered for the first seven (7) calendar days of posting prior to considering non-bargaining unit candidates. In the event a bargaining unit employee fails to submit a bid for a posted position within seven (7) calendar days, the employer shall be free to select the most qualified applicant. It is also understood that if more than one bargaining unit employee applies and meets the criteria outlined below, the position will be awarded to the most employee with the most bargaining unit seniority.

11.2.1 Employees must meet the minimum qualifications of the position as established by the employer. The qualifications will be listed in the job profile.

11.2.2 Employees who received formal corrective action within the last 90 days will not be considered for promotional job vacancies, unless the employer agrees otherwise.

The start dates begin at the start of a new payroll period and generally do not exceed four weeks from the date the job offer is accepted. The employer shall notify the union should there be a need for a delay in a start date and at the request of the union shall meet to explore alternative options.

11.3 Returning to Previous Job. If at any time within the first ninety (90) days, the employer determines that the employee is unable to perform satisfactorily, such employee may be returned to his/her former position including shift, assignment and scheduled hours without loss of seniority, provided his/her former position is still available. If the employee's position is not available, the employee will be returned to a comparable position in the same department and job title, if available.

11.4 Extra Hours. When the employer determines, extra hours may be available but do not by themselves constitute an available position, the hours will be communicated to the department. Employees in current positions less than full time may apply for the hours. The hours will be awarded based on bargaining unit seniority.

ARTICLE 12 SENIORITY

12.1 Definitions. Seniority shall be defined as follows:

12.1.1 "PeaceHealth Seniority" shall mean a full-time, part-time or per diem employee's continuous length of employment within PeaceHealth or at PeaceHealth Southwest Medical Center from the most recent date of hire.

12.2 Bargaining Unit Seniority. Full-Time, Part-time and Per Diem Employees shall be credited with one year of Union Seniority for every one year of continuous employment in the bargaining unit with the Employer at PeaceHealth Southwest. For employees working at the time of ratification, Union Seniority will be based on their current PeaceHealth seniority date.

12.3 Loss of Seniority. An employee's Bargaining Unit Seniority will be broken for all purposes if:

12.3.1 The employee terminates voluntarily or through layoff and is rehired by PeaceHealth Southwest in a bargaining unit position more than twelve (12) months later.

12.4 Seniority Tie Breaker. If employees have the same bargaining unit seniority date, the following tie breaker will be used to determine the seniority order: Employees having the same bargaining unit seniority date will be placed on the seniority records based on the day of the month in which they are born (lowest number has highest seniority; highest number has lowest seniority). A second tie-breaker, if needed, will be based on the month of the year in which the employees are born (earlier month has higher seniority).

ARTICLE 13 LAYOFFS, RECALLS, AND RESTRUCTURES

13.1 Layoff. A layoff is defined as a permanent or prolonged reduction in the number of employees employed by the Employer. Layoffs will be by job classification or by job classification within a department or unit. In the event of a layoff, the employee(s) with the least amount of bargaining unit seniority will be laid off first, provided that skill, competence and ability are substantially equal. Prior to implementing a layoff, the Employer may seek volunteers for layoff from among employees in those classifications and/or units affected by the layoff. Non-bargaining unit employees within the affected job classifications in a department or work unit on a shift will be released prior to the layoff of bargaining unit employees. Vacant positions within the shift and classification(s) covered by a layoff will not be filled during the period beginning with the notice of layoff and continuing to the date of layoff. This section does not apply to a reduction in FTE status.

13.1.1 Notice of layoff. The Employer will provide notice of layoff to the Union and to affected employees no less than thirty (30) days in advance (or pay in lieu thereof based on scheduled workdays), unless unforeseeable conditions beyond the Employer's control prevent such notice. The Employer will provide the Union with a seniority roster and a list of vacant bargaining unit positions at the time of such notice. The list will include the unit, FTE and shift of the vacant positions. Upon request by the Union, the parties will meet to bargain the impact.

13.1.2 Vacant positions. The Employer will undertake a good-faith effort to place employees who are subject to layoff in comparable vacant positions. Vacant positions are comparable if they are in the same or similar classification, are at the same or greater base rate of pay, are on the same shift, are within 0.2 FTE of the employee's position at the time of layoff, and the employee has the necessary skills and ability in the Employer's opinion to perform the work required within an orientation period of four (4) weeks. If the employee has not achieved a satisfactory level of performance in the judgment of the Employer within the four-week period, the employee will be placed on layoff status. Employees who decline the offer of a comparable vacant position are not eligible to exercise the options set forth in this agreement.

13.1.3 Severance option. Employees who are notified of elimination of their position may elect to receive severance benefits in accordance with the terms of the Employer's severance policy, as determined by the Employer in its sole discretion, in the same manner and for as long as the policy applies to all other non-supervisory employees of the Employer. An employee's election to receive severance benefits will constitute a waiver by the employee of any further rights set forth in this Agreement.

13.1.4 Displacement option. An individual who is displaced and who is not offered a comparable vacant position shall be subject to the following provisions:

1. The individual has the right to displace the least senior employee in the same classification in a position of equivalent or lesser FTE on the individual's current shift.
2. If no such position on the individual's current shift is available, then the individual has the right to displace the least senior employee in the same classification in a position of equivalent or lesser FTE on another shift.

13.2 Recall. Employees on layoff status will be placed on a reinstatement roster for a maximum period of twelve (12) months from the date of layoff. Employees in lay off status must apply for and will be selected for vacant positions in the same job classification and unit in reverse order seniority provided that the employee has the necessary skills and ability in the Employer's opinion to perform the work required within an orientation period of four (4) weeks. If an employee declines or fails to respond within seven (7) days to the Employer's offer of a position as defined above, then the employee's name will be removed from the reinstatement roster and the employee's recall rights will terminate.

13.2.1 Vacant positions. An employee on the reinstatement roster may apply to a vacant position in a different classification in the same manner as any other regular employee pursuant to this agreement.

13.2.2 Per Diem Option. An employee's acceptance of a per diem position as a result of displacement shall not affect their recall rights.

13.3 Seniority and benefits. Seniority and benefits do not accrue while on layoff status. Upon recall within twelve (12) months of layoff, employees will have previously accrued seniority and benefits restored and will again commence accruing seniority and benefits (per applicable timelines).

13.4 Unit Merger or Restructure. In the event of a merger of two (2) or more units into a single unit or a restructuring of an existing department or unit, the Employer will determine the number of full-time and part-time FTEs by shift and by classification required for the new or restructured department or unit. Prior to implementation of the schedule, the Employer will offer to meet with Union Representatives for the affected department(s) or unit(s) to discuss the reconfiguration of the FTEs in the department(s) or unit(s) and the new work schedules. A listing of the FTEs for each shift on the new/restructured department(s) or unit(s), including any qualification requirements, will be posted on the department(s) or unit(s) for at least ten (10) days. By the end of the posting period, each employee must submit to the Employer a written list which identifies and ranks the employee's preferences for all available positions. Employees will be reassigned to positions within the merged or restructured unit(s) in order of seniority, taking into consideration the employees' preferences. If the unit merger or restructure results in a reduction in force the layoff procedure in this agreement will apply.

And, unless specifically provided otherwise in this Agreement, no past practices will be binding on the Employer.

In addition, the parties acknowledge that during the negotiations which resulted in this Agreement each party had the unlimited opportunity to make demands and proposals with respect to any subject or matter not removed by law from the area of collective bargaining and the understandings and agreements arrived at by the parties after having had that opportunity are set forth in this Agreement. Therefore, for the term of this Agreement, the Employer and the Union each voluntarily and unqualifiedly waives the right, and each agrees that the other will not be obligated, to bargain collectively with respect to any subject or matter not covered by this Agreement. Instead, all such subjects or matters will be administered by the Employer on a unilateral basis.

ARTICLE 25
NO STRIKES OR LOCKOUTS

25.1 No strike. The Union agrees that during the term of this Agreement and regardless of whether an unfair labor practice has been alleged there will be no strike, sympathy strike, picket or other work stoppage or slowdown of any kind by employees covered by this Agreement, and the Union will not authorize, encourage, or approve any such action.

25.2 No Lockout. The Employer agrees that during the term of this Agreement there will be no lockout of employees covered by this Agreement.

ARTICLE 26
TERMS OF AGREEMENT

This Agreement shall become effective upon ratification, and shall continue in full force and effect through and including June 30, 2023, and shall continue in full force from year to year thereafter unless notice of desire to amend or terminate the Agreement is served by either party upon the other at least ninety (90) days prior to the anniversary date of the date of expiration.
